

RICOH CORPORATION

The following is Ricoh's warranty policy on Digital Cameras:

Ricoh's Limited Warranty provides that the product is free from defects in materials or workmanship and Ricoh agrees, at its own option, to either repair or replace the unit within the time periods set forth below provided to the original purchaser:

- 1) Returns the Digital Camera Product, prepaid and insured, to the Ricoh Service Facility in the County where such product was purchased by the original purchaser.
- 2) Submits proof of date of purchase.

Personal or Non-Income Producing Use

One (1) year from date of original purchase

Commercial or Income Producing Use (For USA only)

Ninety (90) days from date of original purchase

Limitation of Warranty

This warranty does not cover finishes or batteries, nor does it cover damage resulting from accident, misuse, abuse, dirt, water, battery leakage, tampering, servicing performed or attempted by unauthorized agencies. This warranty is only valid in the country where the product is purchased.

Ricoh shall not be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages or for loss, damage or expense directly or indirectly arising from the customer's use of or inability to use the equipment either separately in or combination with other equipment, or for personal injury or loss or destruction of other property, or from any other cause.

For USA Only

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, so the above limitation may not apply to you.

Some States do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation may not apply to you.

This warranty gives you specific rights, and you may have other legal rights which vary from state to state.
